

Media Accreditation

The Festival of Cricket welcomes representatives from all forms of media. To ensure visiting journalists, photographers and production people have access to the areas they desire, we require the following accreditation requirements to be fulfilled.

Once you have completed the details below, we will issue you with a media identification card. This card can be collected at the information tent upon arrival at the Festival. Your name will be on a list of accredited media personnel. You will need to show one form of photo ID to confirm your accreditation.

To get more information or any kind of help on Festival of Cricket 2005 Media Accreditation, please contact the event director, Elizabeth Nichols – elizabeth@festivalofcricket.com

Any coverage you give to the Festival of Cricket is greatly appreciated. We would also be grateful if tearsheets/copies of transmission/webpage details can be given to any coverage after the event.

Accreditation Requirements

All media applying for accreditation must submit proof that they represent a bona fide media organization, as follows:

- Letter of assignment on official letterhead of a media organization from the Publisher/Assignment Editor or Bureau Chief. It should specify the name and functional title of the journalist.
- Print media representatives are required to submit one recent issue of the publication. Radio and TV media representatives must submit call signs or Station/Channel ID.
- Independent film companies are required to provide a letter on official company letterhead and either one piece of previous footage or letter from the media that will be using their work.
- Photographers are required to submit original tear sheets or photos with credits of the issuing organization.

In addition to the above requirements, online media must meet the following requirements:

- The web publication must belong to a registered company and have a street address and a telephone number.
- If the web site is new, the applicant seeking accreditation must provide the latest data on the site's visitors or other relevant material to indicate the content of the site and its focus.

Photo identification: Journalists must also submit one form of valid ID. Valid ID may include a current passport, press card, work ID, driver's licence or other form of photo ID. This will need to be shown when collecting your media pass at the Festival.

If the original person who applied for the media accreditation can not attend and the organisation wishes to send someone in their place, photo ID and a letter from the media organisation will need to be shown when collecting the pass.

Please complete the form below and either email it to elizabeth@festivalofcricket.com or mail it to Festival of Cricket PO Box 2031, Bowral NSW 2576 Australia or fax it to +61 2 48617199.

Once we have received your form we will contact you and confirm your accreditation. Many thanks for your interest in the Festival of Cricket.
